

My Marriage Confession

January 2, 2016 Marriage

My husband has left father & mother to join himself to me, and together we have become inseparable, we have become one flesh. We made a covenant together and it will not be put asunder. My husband is the head of our home just as Christ is the Head of the church.

I will love & respect him all the days of my life. I purpose in my heart to keep envy & strife out of my life so that the evil works of confusion & disharmony will find no resting place in our home.

I realize that I am his Help Meet (Gen. 2:18), therefore I will allow God to help (EMPOWER) me to become,

Suitable:
to please, to satisfy

Adaptable:
to undergo change to fit a new or special situation

As this is right & fitting and my duty in the Lord (Col. 3:18b).

I will hold my marriage in high regard, of great price & especially dear (Heb. 13:14a) by:

Loving him
Submitting to him
&
Respecting him
For this is the will of God concerning me.
